

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Removal Goods from countries outside EU	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Inventory in English. Please do not use the terms "Miscellaneous" or PBO on the inventory. B/L or AWB - shipper & consignee must be the same person on the B/L as well as on the AWB. Copy of the importers passport identification pages. If alcoholic beverages, bottled water, tea and coffee are included in the shipment a detailed inventory is required listing brand, alcohol percentage, numbers and sizes of bottles. Returning Danes may be requested to provide proof of a minimum stay of twelve months outside EU for example in the form of a certification from an authority abroad, an employers or the like. 	Household goods which have been owned and used for minimum 6 months, and still are intended for owner's use, can be imported duty free by any person taking up residence in Denmark or within the EU. Returning Danes must have had a residence outside the EU for minimum 12 months to qualify for duty free importation of household goods. Household Goods must be imported within 12 months of the owner's arrival to enjoy duty free import. Owner must be registered as a resident in Denmark before the arrival of the shipment.	Customs clearance must take place immediately upon arrival of goods Visitors and Danes residing abroad cannot import household goods free of taxes and duty.
Diplomatic Removals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Inventory. A "Declaration for Diplomats" issued by the embassy or local foreign mission. 	A person being accredited as a foreign diplomat to Denmark is allowed duty free import privileges including duty free import of alcohol (no quotas). The Declaration for Diplomat number 13004 has to be filled out by the Foreign Embassy in Denmark. The alcohol must only be for own consumption or to use in a professional capacity. The alcohol is not to be sold in Denmark.	Returning Danish Diplomats do not enjoy any diplomatic privileges and their removals will be customs cleared under common rules and regulations (they must pay duties on any dutiable items included in their shipment).
Wedding Trousseau	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Inventory. Declaration signed by both persons. 	Duty-free. Danes must have had a residence abroad for minimum 12 months to qualify for duty free	Goods must be for use in normal household. Maximum value EUR 1,000 per gift items.

Updated version 12 October 2016.

This document is produced based on the information supplied at the mentioned date. Our thanks to FIDI Denmark for this update.

All rights reserved.

This publication may not be reproduced in any form without the permission of the FIDI Global Alliance.

The FIDI Global Alliance cannot take responsibility for the contents of this publication. It is recommended to verify this information with a local destination agent prior to shipping.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Marriage certificate. 	importation of wedding gifts Household Goods must be imported within 4 months of the wedding to enjoy duty free import.	Residents of Denmark cannot import wedding gifts free of duty and taxes.
Inheritance	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Inventory. Inheritance certificate signed by client. Death certificate. Copy of will or declaration issued and legalised by the Lawyer handling the estate. 	Duty-free within 2 years following the finalization of the estate.	Goods must be for use in normal household.
New items	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Invoice. 	From outside EU, subject to duty and VAT.
Works of Art	If included in household goods, see "removal goods"; if commercial, see "new items". If for exhibition: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Inventory. Pro-forma invoice. Temporary free entry or ATA-carnet. 	Duty-free. For exhibitions – provided: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> the importer is registered as an importer with the Danish Customs/Tax authorities and has posted a security deposit. or <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a bank guarantee is posted. Works of Art can be imported without the use of an ATA-carnet – which is preferable.	It is recommended to contact your local agent prior to shipment.
Antiques	If included in household goods see "removal goods"; Commercial: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Invoice. Certificate stating/certifying that the item is 	Duty free, but subject to VAT (25%).

Updated version 12 October 2016.

This document is produced based on the information supplied at the mentioned date. Our thanks to FIDI Denmark for this update.

All rights reserved.

This publication may not be reproduced in any form without the permission of the FIDI Global Alliance.

The FIDI Global Alliance cannot take responsibility for the contents of this publication. It is recommended to verify this information with a local destination agent prior to shipping.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	at least 100 years old.
Household Utensils	If included in household goods see "removal goods", if commercial, see "new items".
Electrical Appliances	If included in household goods, see "removal goods", if commercial, see "new items".		Articles must conform to Danish specifications.
Cars and Motorcycles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Original foreign registration papers. • Insurance card. 	Owners must have been lived outside EU for a minimum of 12 months to import free of duty. Duty free importation for airplanes, caravans, pleasure crafts, motor trailers, provided these have been in the owners' possession and registered as such abroad for a minimum of six months. Registration tax, which is extremely high, is to be paid. Following customs clearance, the owner in person must present the car to the authorities for registration within 30 days of the arrival of the vehicle.	Persons living in Denmark are not permitted to drive vehicles registered abroad. A car imported free of duty may not be sold, pawned or rented out within 12 months of importation.
Other vehicles	If included in household goods, see "removal goods", if not see "new items".		Generally speaking, there are a variety of specific regulations for import of motor driven vehicles to Denmark. Contact with your local agent prior to shipment is recommended.
Machines, implements and spare parts	In principle see "new items".		Under some circumstances, there are special rules for scientific equipment, spare parts etc. Contact the local agent prior to shipment.
Restricted import wine, spirits, tea, coffee and	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Invoice. 	Any quantities of wine, spirits, tea, coffee and tobacco included in household goods shipment	As the amount of duties and taxes will be assessed on the value and quantity of the Updated version 12 October 2016.

This document is produced based on the information supplied at the mentioned date. Our thanks to FIDI Denmark for this update.

All rights reserved.

This publication may not be reproduced in any form without the permission of the FIDI Global Alliance.

The FIDI Global Alliance cannot take responsibility for the contents of this publication. It is recommended to verify this information with a local destination agent prior to shipping.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
tobacco	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Certificate of origin. 	must be declared to be for personal consumption and will attract duty and tax. Larger quantities will be considered as commercial import and may only be imported by licensed importers.	beverage or tobacco to be imported it is not possible to indicate a general level of duties. Please note that all quantities, whether in unopened or opened bottles, will be assessed taxes and duties Due to the high taxes, there is a strict control by import and it is not advisable to include spirits in removals.
Tinned goods	If small quantities imported with household goods, see "removal goods"; otherwise: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Veterinary certificate. • Origin certificate. 	Rules are varying. In general we discourage to bring in tinned goods as this may delay customs clearance and result in extra expenses.
General food	Same rules as for "tinned goods".	Rules are varying. In general we discourage to bring in general food as this may delay customs clearance and result in extra expenses.
Arms, ammunition and dangerous items	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Import licence from Ministry of Justice, issued through local Police office. • Shooting permit. 	Prohibited (unless a special license is obtained from the Danish Ministry of Justice).
Sport items	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If included in household goods, see "removal goods"; • If for competitions: Valued inventory. 	Temporary free entry.
Narcotics Medicines not approved by the Danish Health Authorities		Prohibited (unless a special license is obtained from the Danish Ministry of Justice).
Precious metal items	If included in household goods, see "removal goods"; otherwise see "new items".		Import and possession of gold and silver in bars is prohibited.

Updated version 12 October 2016.

This document is produced based on the information supplied at the mentioned date. Our thanks to FIDI Denmark for this update.

All rights reserved.

This publication may not be reproduced in any form without the permission of the FIDI Global Alliance.

The FIDI Global Alliance cannot take responsibility for the contents of this publication. It is recommended to verify this information with a local destination agent prior to shipping.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Carpets	If included in household goods, see "removal goods"; otherwise see "new items".
Plants		Prohibited (unless the Danish Governmental Plant Protection Service grants a license based on certificate from authorities at origin that the plants are free from disease).
Pets	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Health certificate not more than 1 month old issued by the Veterinarian Authorities at origin or EU animal passport. 2. Certificate for rabies vaccination (issued at least 3 weeks but not more than 12 months prior departure). 3. Identification of the animal (tattoo or microchip) must be verified against health certificates before any entry is allowed. 	May be imported from most countries provided the required documents are valid and available at the port of entry.	Pets from certain countries may be required to undergo a rabies serological test prior to importation into the EU. Please always refer to us for up-to-date information prior to importation. Under normal circumstances quarantine will not be required for healthy animals.
Other animals		Prohibited live, dead and pre-manufactured parts of animals as mentioned in the Washington Convention (unless the Danish Nature Conservancy Board grants a license).
Fumigation of imported and exported wooden packaging materials including wooded crates.		Please note that all consignment entering the European Union must comply with the international Standard for Phytosanitary Measures No. 15 (ISPM15) that sets out the guidelines for the use of wooden packaging material in international trade.	All arriving solid wood packaging incl. dunnage must carry the ISPM15 mark indicating that all the timber has received appropriate treatment.

Updated version 12 October 2016.

This document is produced based on the information supplied at the mentioned date. Our thanks to FIDI Denmark for this update.

All rights reserved.

This publication may not be reproduced in any form without the permission of the FIDI Global Alliance.

The FIDI Global Alliance cannot take responsibility for the contents of this publication. It is recommended to verify this information with a local destination agent prior to shipping.